

Altar Cross with Doves

Mr. Kircher also designed the large altar cross adorned with four lifesize doves. Two doves sit side by side on one arm of the cross, another on the other arm as the fourth dove lands atop of the cross. These two sculpted bronze pieces are in relationship to one another. In the doves, signs in Christian tradition of the Holy Spirit, the Meditating Christ contemplates not only His pending crucifixion but resurrection to come. In the words of sculptor, Lynn Kircher, "As an artist I've been moved, very touched, sometimes overwhelmed when people who have witnessed my liturgical art tell me it has enhanced their spiritual journey. It's a way for me to be of service." Lynn and his wife Jane, personally delivered the bronze sculptures that were installed with the help of Cooper Construction Company.
